

Whereas the American Library Association (ALA) lost a valued colleague on January 19, 2023, with the death of Dr. Betty Lee Sung;

Whereas Sung was born in 1924 in Maryland; she received a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from the University of Illinois in 1948, a Master of Library Science from Queens College of the City University of New York (CUNY); and a PhD from the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York; Sung received many awards including an honorary doctorate, Doctor of Letters, from State University of New York Old Westbury;

Whereas Sung started her career working at the Library of Congress translating Chinese maps for the Army during World War II; at the Library of Congress, she advocated for the creation of an Asian American collection; Sung also worked at the Queens Borough that the American Library Association (ALA), on behalf of its members