Transforming Libraries

In accordance with ALA Bylaws (Aicle IX, Sec. 1), the ALA Executive Board presents to the ALA Council for approval both the annual estimates of income and the budget objectives (programmatic priorities) for approval. By practice, the programmatic priorities or budget objectives are present early in the budget preparation cycle (at the Midwinter Meeting) in order to provide guidance in its development. The annual estimates of income derive from the work of budget development and are presented to Council for approval at the ALA Annual Conference, prior to the final approval of the budget by the ALA Executive Board.

ALA 2015 goals and objectivesere approved by the ALA Council at the 2010 Annual Conference. They articulate five ar goals and objectives that, collectively, direct Aistion activity – such as advocacy or research – toward accomplishment of specific ends within the mission of the Association and the broad arenas of the programmatic priorities. Within the framework of approved mission, programmatic priorities, goadsoanjectives, specific implementation strategies are developed and implemented through the annual budget.

The following list of programmatic priorities was approved annually by the ALA Council, on recommendation of the ALA Executive Board, from 192005.

- Diversity
- Education and Continuous Learning
- Equity of Access
- Intellectual Freedom
- 21st Century Literacy

At the October 29, 2005 LA Executive Board meeting following adoption of ALA's 2010 strategic plan, the Board recommended additions to the stip storibetter align the programmatic priorities with ALA's strategic plan – ALAhead to 2010.

In January 2006, the ALA Council firapproved he revised list of key action areas as the FY2007 programmatic priorities, developied accordance with ALA Ahead to 2010:

- Diversity
- Equitable Access to Information & Library Services
