

*This document became CD20.6 and was adopted by the ALA Council on Tuesday,
June 28, 2016*

Whereas equity of access is one of five key action areas adopted by the American Library Association to fulfill its mission of providing the highest quality library and information services for all people;

Whereas the American Library Association values our nation's divers

