DATE: January 26, 2018

BACKGROUND:

The ALA Allied Professional Association (ALA-APA) is a nonprofit professional organization that end, the ALA-APA is focused on two broad areas:

Certification of individuals in specializations beyond the initial professional degree.

Direct support of comparable worth and pay equity initiatives, and other activities designed to improve the salaries and status of librarians and other library workers.

CPLA Program

The Certified Public Library Administrator (CPLA) Program is a voluntary post-MLS certification program for public librarians with three years or more of supervisory experience. Its aim is to further professional education and development and help librarians move to a higher level of practical professional experience. To date, there are a total of 301 enrollees in the program and 97 graduates.

LSSC Program

The Library Support Staff Certification (LSSC) Program offers library support staff the opportunity to commit to professional development and continuing education through the completion of competency sets developed and implemented by the ALA-APA. To date, there are a total of 560 enrollees in the program and 183 graduates.

National Library Workers Day (NLWD) and Equal Pay Day

Once every few years the dates for National Library Workers Day (NLWD) and Equal Pay Day coincide with one another. This is one of those years. Both will be held on April 10, 201

The APA does not have members. It is a companion organization to the ALA and serves its members and the library community at large. Please consider supporting our efforts by giving financially. Your contributions and support make it possible for the organization to continue to strive every day for the advancement of all library employees. No gift is too small. On the ALA homepage, go to “giveALA” and select “Offices Other” and then ALA-APA.

Social Media

For ongoing monitoring of APA activities and events, visit the website at: www.ala-apa.org or follow the APA on Twitter @alaapa or like us on Facebook .

Acknowledgements

In closing, I would like to thank the hard working volunteers and committee members of all of the various APA groups without which we would not be able to continue the work of advocating for library workers.

I would personally like to acknowledge the support of the MPS, Finance, Membership, ITTS and Governance Office staffs for their overall support of the APA. And finally, I would like to acknowledge the support of the APA staffs (Klo dgt n f, Bgc v l e g C c m k p, P c o g r A n p u, Dr. Caitlin Williams and Jamie Bragg) for their dedication, commitment and hard work in getting the work done.

\ Please note: Your contribution to the ALA-APA*
